

THE NATWEST SE100 STORYTELLER AWARD

Before applying for this award please make certain you have fully completed your SE100 profile, including all annual returns and impact measurement questions. We cannot shortlist organisations that have incomplete profiles.

Please use this form to talk about how the nomination meets at least one of the below criteria.

- A social venture that over the past 12 months has created and delivered a brilliant communications campaign to drive the impact and scale of its activity
- A social venture who can demonstrate both an innovative and strategic approach to communications and marketing and how it can support both their business and social goals (this should include a consideration of key audiences and evidence of the range of tools and channels used to reach them, from social media to PR to brand development).

Please supply links and supporting material for your nomination i.e. Website addresses, literature, images and film.
